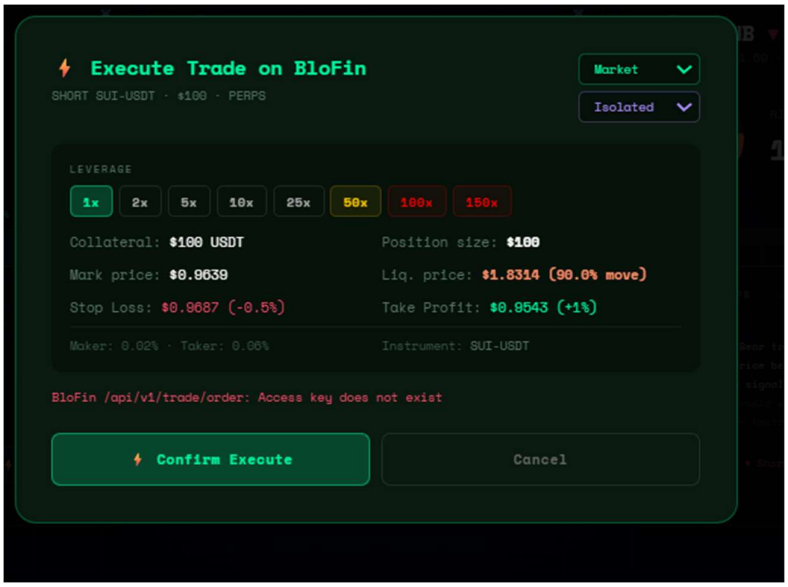
1.

- I would like to replace the Astral tab with a news tab for all things relevant to for things that move markets. How hard would it be to create something like https://247terminal.com/ran ?

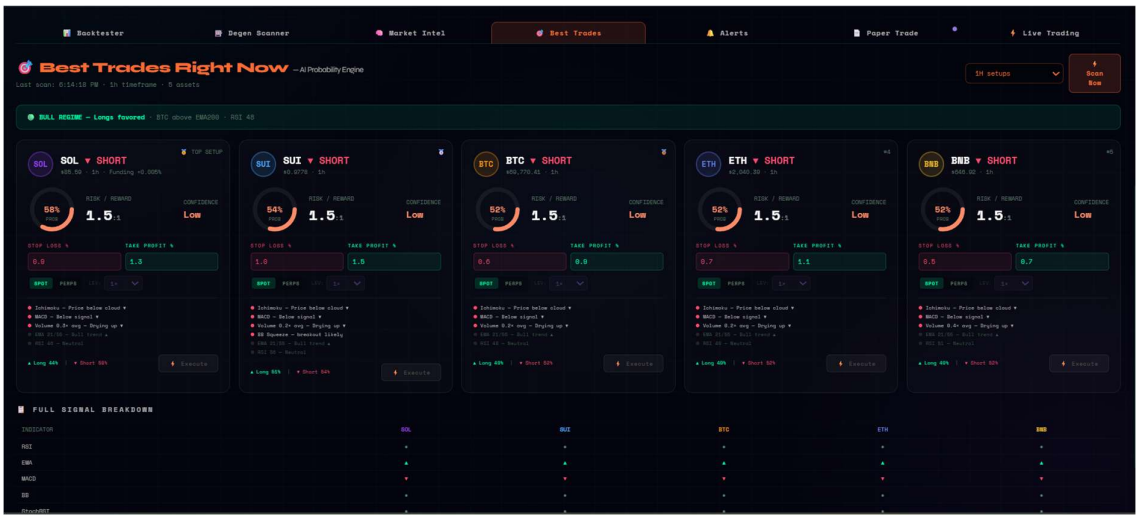
247 Terminal Users

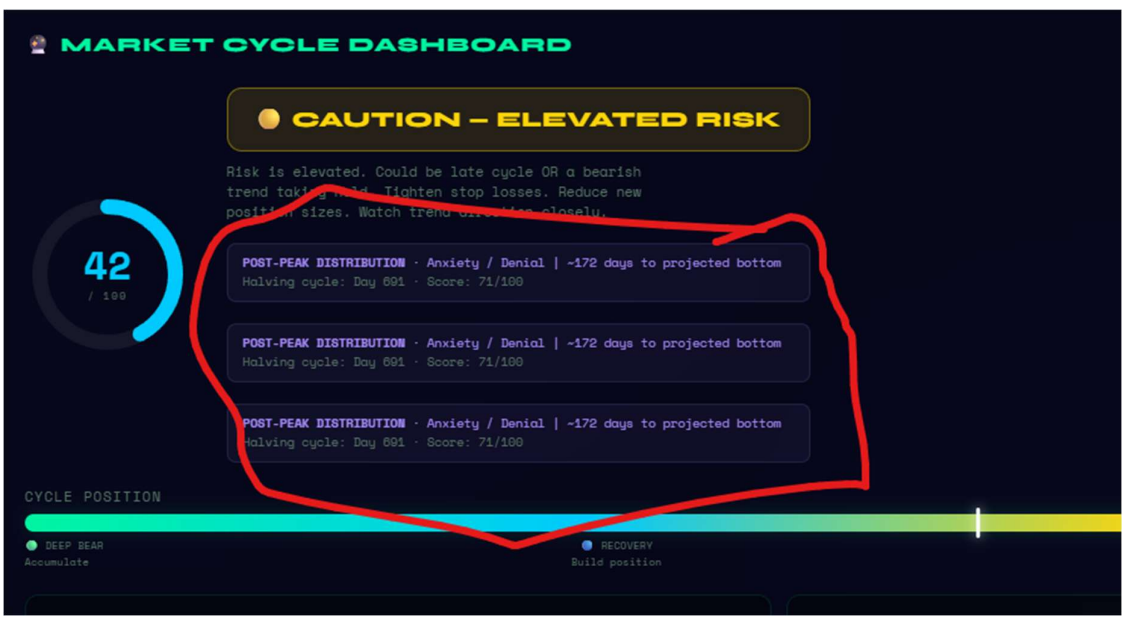
- News in milliseconds, before Twitter
- One-click with pre-set size and leverage
- Trade while others read the headline
- Finally catch the moves you've missed
- All exchanges on a single screen
- AI filters the noise for you

2. These need to be bigger and easier to read.



3. I think the best trade section should have a trade recommendation log that shows the % of wins and losses based on the recommendations.





4. Why are these three here?
